

Supporting the Journey Home: Growing the Community Bundle to Care for Those with Serious Illness

ABOUT:

- Supporting the Journey Home is a virtual educational program for interprofessional community care teams working in First Nation communities.
- The program will provide practical tips and strategies for incorporating an early palliative approach from a First Nations perspective.

WHO IS THIS FOR:

- Community care providers who have a caregiving role (e.g. physicians, nurse practitioners, patient coordinators, PSWs, CHNs, CHRs, cultural workers, Elders, etc.).
- Must be working within a First Nations community setting or coordinating care with community care providers based in a First Nations community in Ontario (e.g. external care providers coordinating/delivering care for First Nations people).

PROGRAM COMMITMENT:

- 9 weekly 1.5-hour sessions offered twice per week
- Virtual learning (Zoom with audio and camera)
- Participate in Circle Reflections
- Complete weekly exercises
- Access to an online learning platform (Moodle)

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

- Apply by January 6, 2025. Applicants will be notified about their application by January 10, 2025.

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Lillian Souliere-Lamb:
soulierl@mcmasteru365.onmicrosoft.com
Bethany Bocchinfuso:
bocchinb@mcmaster.ca

HOW TO APPLY:

- Please fill out the applicant information page below and send it to the above contacts or you can apply using the QR code

Apply Here

APPLICANT INFORMATION

Full Name
Role in your community care team
Name(s) of First Nations community you work in/with Telephone #
Email Address
How long have you worked in/with First Nations communities?	<input type="checkbox"/> Less than 1 year <input type="checkbox"/> 1 to up to 2 years <input type="checkbox"/> 2 to up to 5 years <input type="checkbox"/> 5 to up to 10 years <input type="checkbox"/> More than 10 years
How are you providing palliative care in your current role?
What palliative care training have you taken?	<input type="checkbox"/> Palliative Care Training for Front-Line Workers in Indigenous Communities <input type="checkbox"/> Pallium LEAP <input type="checkbox"/> De Souza Institute <input type="checkbox"/> SE Learning <input type="checkbox"/> None of the above <input type="checkbox"/> Other. Please specify: _____

This program is funded by First Nations & Inuit Health Branch – Ontario Region Indigenous Services Canada/Government of Canada. The Principal Investigator is Dr. Hsien Seow, McMaster University. He can be contacted at any time with questions at seowh@mcmaster.ca. This study has been reviewed by the Hamilton Integrated Research Ethics Board (HIREB). If you have questions about your rights as a participant, please call the Office of the Chair, HIREB, at 905.521.2100 x 42013 or email Dr. Seow.

For Office Use Only

Date received: _____

Eligibility Criteria

The position is based in a First Nations Community in Ontario: Yes No

The position has a role in the coordination of care with First Nations
Communities in Ontario: Yes No

The position has a role in providing palliative care: Yes No